Grand Knight's Message

by Thomas J. Liddy, GK

Dear Brothers,

I want to start this Clarion article by continuing the conversation focused on forming the New Hyde Park Columbiettes this coming Fall. When a prospective Knight completes his application he sees at the top of the application "A Catholic, Family, Fraternal, Service Organization. Fortunately we have many wonderful women who volunteer to do a wide variety of tasks around the Council. Even though the Columbiettes disbanded, loyal women come every week to man the Bingo kitchen. Others will help acquire raffle prizes and some stand side-by-side with their husbands, making sure dances and other occasions are a success. Personally, I think the spirit is there and the time is now. My Brother Knights, please share this Clarion. The future will be better for everyone with our Columbiettes.

Amazing, amazing, simply amazing, what else can I say. The members of the New Hyde Park Knights of Columbus family, individually and collectively have dedicated three more rooms at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington. Bea Schmaeling dedicated a room in memory of her husband SK Artie Schmaeling, PGK, PFN. Our charity committee voted to dedicate a room in memory of the deceased brothers of our Council and Brother SK George Pellechia, PGK, FDD dedicated a room remembering the many seminar-ians the Council sponsored during his tenure as Vocations Chairman. That brings to four rooms proudly displaying "New Hyde Park Knights of Columbus, Council 2852. Are you interested?

Each year Councils are asked to strive to earn the Columbian award. The Columbian award has six major focus areas. In order to qualify for the award you must meet the requirements in at least four activities for each focus area. The six focus areas are: Church Activities, Community Activities, Council Activities, Family Activities, Culture of Life Activities, and Youth Activities. In this article and in the July/August Clarion I will highlight some activities from each focus area. I have asked Bro. Brian Ennis to post additional activities with a link to upcoming BLASTS from Bro. Kevin McHugh. The purpose of this is to give you ideas on how you can involve yourself in existing programs or possibly start a new program. What is/are your area(s) of interest?

Church activities: In order to satisfy this focus area the Council and/or you might (1) take part in the R.S.V.P program in sponsoring a seminarian, (2) serve your church as a lector, Eucharistic Minister, usher, etc. (3) promote the "Keep Christ in Christmas" and (4) become involved in your parish CCD program.

Supreme News

Saint John Paul II National Shrine Filled with Pilgrims
Following National Mass of Thanksgiving in Washington for New Pope Saints

A national celebration of the newly canonized St. John XXIII and St. John Paul II concluded with a procession of several hundred people from the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception to the Saint John Paul II National Shrine on Sunday, May 11.

The procession was led by an honor guard of more than 100 Fourth Degree Knights. Cardinal Donald Wuerl, archbishop of Washington, who served as the principal celebrant and homilist at the Mass, carried the blood relic of St. John Paul II in the procession back to its shrine. Supreme Chaplain, Archbishop William Lori of Baltimore, had previously carried the relic into the Basilica at the start of the Mass.

Once the procession reached the Saint John Paul II National Shrine, the Apostolic Nuncio to the United States, Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò, read a papal greeting commending the work of the shrine. In his remarks, Supreme Knight Carl Anderson quoted Pope Francis at the recent canonization in which the Holy Father repeated Pope Benedict XVI's words at the beatification of St. John Paul II: "He opened to Christ the society, the culture, the political and economic systems, intervening with the strength of a giant — strength that came to him from God — a tendency which could seem irreversible. With his witness of faith, of love and of apostolic courage, accompanied by a great human drive, this exemplary son of the Polish nation helped Christians worldwide not to be afraid to call themselves Christians, to belong to the Church, to speak of the Gospel. In a word, he helped us not to be afraid of the truth, because the truth is the guarantee of freedom."

Cardinal Wuerl thanked the supreme knight for his vision in making the Saint John Paul II National Shrine a reality and, in the Shrine's chapel, presented a painting of St. John Paul II to the supreme knight, supreme chaplain, deputy supreme knight and several other supreme officers and directors, including the Executive Director of the shrine, Patrick Kelly.

The day's ceremonies were internationally televised on EWTN, Salt and Light Television, Catholic Television of Boston, New Evangelization Television of Brooklyn, and Telecare of Rockville Centre.

A big thank you to Bro. Tom McGowan, PGK and Bro. Harry O'Connor for pulling this year's Children's Charity Dance and raffle together. The raffle brought in a record amount of donations and although we would have liked to see more people at the dance, it was a wonderful evening. Also, I want to thank Mary Ann O'Connor who did a magnificent job with the raffle.

On Sunday May 18th, members of the Council, family members and Color Corpsmen from our Pope John XXIII Assembly traveled to the Shrine of Our Lady of the Island in East Port. We attended Mass as part of the New York State Council's annual pilgrimage. The weather was fabulous and all enjoyed the day.

The Liddy family hopes you enjoyed your Memorial Day weekend and we wish you an enjoyable Fourth of July. Knowing you are Knights of Columbus, I am sure you remembered those who responded to the call of duty, those who made the supreme sacrifice, and will remember those who fought to make a new and unique nation. May God Bless the United States of America.

Finally congratulations to Bro. Frank Smith, Knight of the Year, Bro. Ben Massa, Community Service award recipient and Sarah Carr, Woman of Distinction. I also would like to thank the committee: Bro. Tom McGowan, Bro. Henry Hurtle and Bro. Mike Monroe.

Brothers, thanks for all you do!

Father's Day

On July 19, 1910, the governor of the U.S. state of Washington proclaimed the nation's first "Father's Day." However, it was not until 1972, 58 years after President Woodrow Wilson made Mother's Day official, that the day became a nationwide holiday in the United States.

The campaign to celebrate the nation's fathers did not meet with the same enthusiasm—perhaps because, as one florist explained, "fathers haven't the same sentimental appeal that mothers have." On July 5, 1908, a West Virginia church sponsored the nation's first event explicitly in honor of fathers, a Sunday sermon in memory of the 362 men who had died in the previous December's explosions at the Fairmont Coal Company mines in Monongah, but it was a one-time commemoration and not an annual holiday. The next year, a Spokane, Washington woman named Sonora Smart Dodd, one of six children raised by a widower, tried to establish an official equivalent to Mother's Day for male parents. She went to local churches, the YMCA, shopkeepers and government officials to drum up support for her idea, and she was successful: Washington State celebrated the nation's first statewide Father's Day on July 19, 1910. Slowly, the holiday spread. In 1916, President Wilson honored the day by using telegraph signals to unfurl a flag in Spokane when he pressed a button in Washington, D.C. In 1924, President Calvin Coolidge urged state governments to observe Father's Day. However, many men continued to disdain the day. As one historian writes, they "scoffed at the holiday's sentimental attempts to domesticate manliness with flowers and gift-giving, or they derided the proliferation of such holidays as a commercial gimmick to sell more products—often paid for by the father himself."

During the 1920s and 1930s, a movement arose to scrap Mother's Day and Father's Day altogether in favor of a single holiday, Parents' Day. Every year on Mother's Day, pro-Parents' Day groups rallied in New York City's Central Park—a public reminder, said Parents' Day activist and radio performer Robert Spere, "that both parents should be loved and respected together." Paradoxically, however, the Depression derailed this effort to combine and de-commercialize the holidays. Struggling retailers and advertisers redoubled their efforts to make Father's Day a "second Christmas" for men, promoting goods such as neckties, hats, socks, pipes and tobacco, golf clubs and other sporting goods, and greeting cards. When World War II began, advertisers began to argue that celebrating Father's Day was a way to honor American troops and support the war effort. By the end of the war, Father's Day may not have been a federal holiday, but it was a national institution.

In 1972, in the middle of a hard-fought presidential re-election campaign, Richard Nixon signed a proclamation making Father's Day a federal holiday at last. Today, economists estimate that Americans spend more than $1 billion each year on Father's Day gifts. There are more than 70 million fathers in the United States.

From the History Channel

To Our Readers...

With summer fast approaching, we once again take a hiatus from our Clarion workload to enjoy some of Mother Nature's better outdoor weather. There will only be one Clarion issue for the summer months.

As we end this Columbian Year we can proudly say we did our best in putting out a top-notch bulletin as our council was recognized and awarded Second Place in the New York State Bulletin Contest. I thank Roy of Herald Graphics and Lucy of Mr. Printer for their efforts and talent in producing our newsletter. I thank the behind-the-scenes guys who help tab, label and sort the Clarion for mailing. I would like to say thank you to Brothers: Fred Zoeller, Emil Natale, Frank Smith, Victor Cunneen, Nick Cambria, Anthony Tallini, Vito DeVito, PGK's Pat Crosson, Tom McGowan, and Ben Massa.

As always I thank our advertisers for their support of the Clarion. Many of them have been with us for years. The revenue from their advertisements helps to defray some of the cost associated with the publication of this newsletter.

Enjoy the beginning of the summer. Columnists please have your articles in by July 10.

Thank you.

SHARING THE Good News

Engagement, Birth and Graduation...

In that order; as it was a busy week for the O'Connor clan. On Friday, May 23rd our daughter, Meghan, got engaged to John Tucker. On Memorial Day, May 26th our son, Bro. Chris, and his wife, Victoria, became parents for the first time. Madalynn was born at 1:30 AM at North Shore Hospital. She weighed 7 lbs, 1 oz and measured 20 & ½ inches. This is our first grandchild. And our daughter, Katy, graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Queens College on May 29th. To say the least, MaryAnne and I are very happy for our children and wish the best for them all.

Fraternally,
Harry O'Connor, PGK

35th Annual Children's Charity Fundraiser & Dance

The Children's Charity Dance held at our council on Friday, April 25th proved to be a success. In spite of ourselves we managed to bring in a reasonable amount of money for causes associated with children. This was the first time we held this dance on a Friday. This was the second year holding it in April, however last year it was on a Saturday evening. By holding it on a Friday we fell below 100 guests. Not something you want to do (again). But those who attended (and those who couldn't attend) were very generous.

Not that the following are looking for any recognition, but Tom McGowan and I thought they should: Bro. Brian & Linda Talbot $875.00, GK Thomas & Judy Liddy $220.00, Dr. Nicholas Virgilio & Friends $175.00, Bro. John McCann $125.00, Thomas Piotrowski, PGK $100.00, Bro. Patrick Coyne $100.00, Bea Schmaeling $100.00 in memory of her husband, Artie Schmaeling, PGK, (who really loved being involved in the K of C), Bro. Victor Cunneen $80.00, Bro. Helmut Schuler $60.00 and Bro. David Goodsell $50.00. And I thank everyone who participated by attending the dance or sent in their chance books. All the donations, small or large, were greatly appreciated. It's never taken for granted. The combined monies raised for Children's Charities includes the Raffle portion of $4,440 and the Dance portion of $1,190 which totals: $5,630.

We congratulate the following winners: First Prize $500 Bro. Patrick McGowan, Second Prize $250 Bro. Ed Long, and Third Prize Bro. John Dudek.

Special thanks to Joe Renta, PGK for again taking the reservations and Tom McGowan, PGK for handling the chance books as they came in.
